Free Legal Help for Victims of Domestic Violence

How do you know you need help?

Some signs of domestic violence are more obvious than others.

Does your partner ever:
- Accuse you of cheating and being disloyal?
- Make you feel worthless?
- Hurt you by shaking, restraining, hitting, slapping, choking or kicking you?
- Intimidate and threaten to hurt you or someone you love?
- Threaten to hurt him or herself if he or she doesn’t get what he or she wants?
- Try to control what you do and whom you see?
- Keep you away from friends and family?
- Pressure or force you into unwanted sex?
- Control your access to money?
- Stalk you by constantly calling, texting, emailing, posting on Facebook or Instagram, or following you?

If you are in immediate danger, call 911.

Mission: Partners for Women and Justice empowers low-income victims and survivors of domestic violence to build safe and secure futures for themselves and their children by providing equal access to justice. We offer quality legal assistance in domestic violence and family law matters.

We can help.

Partners’ attorneys provide free legal assistance to low-income victims of domestic violence. We handle the following types of cases:

- Final Restraining Order Hearings
- Issues related to domestic violence including Safe Visitation, Custody, Child Support, Relocation out of New Jersey

Our assistance ranges from over-the-phone advice and counsel to representation in court for hearings in the following counties: Essex, Hudson, Middlesex, Passaic, Union.

To determine if you qualify for our services call
Monday - Friday 8:30 am - 5:00 pm
973-233-0111
or 732-535-6318
(Middlesex County)

Due to our limited resources, we cannot provide representation in court to all who request it.

A victim’s path to safety often depends upon protection by the law.

Partners for Women and Justice does not discriminate on the basis of sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, race, color, religion, national origin, age or disability.